Saskatchewan Legislative Assembly

Second Session of the Twenty-fifth Legislature

JOURNALS

of the

Legislative Assembly of Saskatchewan

Second Session Twenty-Fifth Legislative Assembly

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 2005
(1^{ST} DAY)

2:30 p.m.

The Speaker informed the Assembly that he had received a communication from the Private Secretary to Her Honour the Lieutenant Governor stating that Her Honour would open the Session at 2:30 p.m. today, Monday, the 7th day of November, 2005.

2:32 p.m.

SPEECH FROM THE THRONE

Her Honour the Lieutenant Governor entered the Chamber, and having taken her seat upon the throne, was then pleased to open the Session with the following speech:

Mr. Speaker, Members of the Legislative Assembly, Honoured Guests, People of Saskatchewan.

Welcome to the second session of the 25th Legislature of the Province of Saskatchewan. Welcome to the first session of Saskatchewan's second century.

In the first Speech from the Throne to the Legislative Assembly of the new Province of Saskatchewan on March 29, 1906, my predecessor, the Honourable A.E. Forget, declared that "an era of general prosperity has been entered upon, the limits of which can hardly be estimated."

Our ancestors were people of vision, courage and optimism. They dreamed of a prosperous land and a progressive society in a province richly blessed by nature's bounty.

Today, we take up the challenge posed by their example.

We are joined in the Assembly today by a number of Saskatchewan's centenarians and some of Canada's newest citizens. We welcome them.

Joining us as well, in the gallery are some of our youngest citizens and their parents. These children, born in 2005, are the sons and daughters of our Centennial.

My government's vision for our second century is best described through the eyes of these children. Today we dream of the province in which they will live, grow and reach adulthood.

It is the vision of my government that these children of our Centennial will live in a province that has clean water to drink, fresh air to breathe and beautiful landscapes to explore.

They will know Saskatchewan as a place that is dynamic, innovative and strong – a great place to live, work and raise a family.

They will live in a place that has embraced and marshalled technology in one of the most innovative, fair and competitive economies in the world: a province offering them abundant opportunities to pursue meaningful and rewarding careers.

It is my government's goal that the children of our Centennial will have the best possible chance to grow up free from addiction, lead healthy and active lifestyles, benefit from high quality education, and be actively involved in their communities.

It is my government's vision that they will live, grow and reach adulthood proud of Saskatchewan's diversity, proud of our strong First Nations and Métis culture and tradition, proud of the rich tapestry of people from all parts of the world who make Saskatchewan strong. And they will live together in harmony and respect, desiring for all, that which they wish for themselves.

We are in a time that we have never been, and in an age that we have never seen.

Our vision today shall be our legacy for our children.

Today, my government dreams of a province where no one is left behind on the path to opportunity, a province with an unbreakable social fabric, built on the foundation of diverse and growing communities, in a green and prosperous economy.

A GREEN AND PROSPEROUS ECONOMY

Economic Prosperity

Saskatchewan enjoys unprecedented economic momentum as we begin our second century.

Four years ago, Saskatchewan was one of eight 'have-not' provinces. Today, because of the vision and hard work of Saskatchewan people, we are a 'have' province, and the only 'have' province in Canada that does not charge its citizens a health care premium. We are a 'have' province with heart.

Saskatchewan values fiscal responsibility. Our province has received its 13th credit rating upgrade since 1995. Our children should not inherit financial burden. During this session my government will balance the budget and pay down debt.

The work that has turned Saskatchewan's economic recovery to economic leadership will continue, based on the Saskatchewan Action Plan for the Economy: A New Century of Opportunity, a plan developed by the people of Saskatchewan.

As our second century unfolds, Saskatchewan will have one of the most diverse business environments in the country. Private enterprise, co-operative enterprise and public enterprise will stimulate growth and create jobs.

In this session, recommendations from the Business Tax Review Committee will be acted upon. Investments in programs that encourage entrepreneurs will be made.

Active work will be undertaken to include more youth and Aboriginal people in the labour market and business sector. The recently announced Youth Opportunities Unleashed program will help support young entrepreneurs in rural communities, and the Saskatchewan First Nations and Métis Economic Development Program will involve even more Aboriginal residents in the economic mainstream.

We will work with First Nations and Métis people to ensure they become full participants, as employees, and as business partners, in the economic mainstream.

Environment

A healthy economy and a healthy future for our children depend on a healthy environment.

My government's vision for the land that sustains us, is a vision of a natural environment even more habitable and nourishing in 2025 than it is today.

The results of our Green Strategy consultations will be built upon by expanding conservation and recycling programs, and pursuing a more integrated approach to managing our water resources.

In the year ahead, a climate change and energy initiatives package will be developed and implemented, contributing to an even greener and more prosperous economy.

In 2006, Saskatchewan's provincial parks system will celebrate its 75th anniversary. Our parks will showcase clean and green practices, and our stewardship of protected land will be a lasting inheritance.

During this session, my government will continue a process of consultation with northerners toward the recognition of the Churchill River as one of Saskatchewan's natural legacies.

Central to Saskatchewan's green and prosperous economic future is our province's vast forest.

In the coming months, we will work tirelessly to address recent challenges in the forestry industry and we will work with industry to capture new opportunities in the forestry sector and its ever-changing marketplace. With the recent establishment of the Saskatchewan Forest Centre in Prince Albert, we are well-positioned to do so.

Agroforestry, including the growing of trees as crops, is underway. My government has a bold vision for the future of this industry. Over the next twenty years, the goal will be to transform ten per cent of the arable land of Saskatchewan to agroforestry, creating another sustainable industry in our province.

Saskatchewan will continue to be a leader in forestry management practices.

Energy and Mining

Today, Saskatchewan is leading the continent in the diversity and potential of its renewable and non-renewable energy sources.

To capture the energy of the wind, projects already underway will produce 172 megawatts of zero emission power, five per cent of Saskatchewan's electrical generation capacity, or enough for 73,000 homes.

Saskatchewan was the first province to legislate the use of cleaner burning ethanol-blended gasoline. Today, Saskatchewan is poised to become a major producer of grain-based ethanol with production facilities nearing completion in Lloydminster and Weyburn, in addition to existing production in Lanigan.

In the coming year, future opportunities with wind generation and ethanol production will be explored.

Today, hydro power contributes to our energy needs. Research and development in biomass, biodiesel, hydrogen, and solar power are also taking place in Saskatchewan.

Given our wealth of renewable energy resources, it is the vision of my government that by the third decade of this century, the children of our Centennial will live in a province where one-third of their energy needs are met by renewable energy sources, and Saskatchewan will lead the country in energy conservation practices.

Saskatchewan is also a province with many conventional energy riches. We already account for one-third of Canada's total energy production, primarily through our uranium, oil and gas. My government's recent work with industry partners has developed our primary energy resources to record levels. In the coming years, Saskatchewan's energy contribution will grow even larger.

My government foresees the need for, and will pursue investment in, additional heavy oil upgrading capacity, clean coal technologies, natural gas in coal, and poly-generation opportunities.

To reach these goals, government will work with industry partners to sharpen our competitive edge in the attraction of energy investment, pursue research and development through the Petroleum Technology Research Centre, and intensify efforts in enhanced oil recovery technologies. Saskatchewan will persist in achieving a Saskatchewan Energy Accord and a fair equalization formula with the federal government.

A strong Saskatchewan is good for all of Canada.

Today, Saskatchewan is a major player in Canada's mining and mineral industry. Mineral exploration expenditures have doubled each year since 2003. In potash alone, the incentive package established in April has triggered more than $570 million in investment intentions.

Saskatchewan's Athabasca Basin is currently the world's prime exploration district for high-grade uranium deposits. One of the richest uranium mines in the world is gearing up to go into production at Cigar Lake in 2007.

Continued growth and investment in our traditional mining sectors will be ensured, and we will pursue opportunities to expand the scope of mining in our province. Saskatchewan has one of the largest diamond bearing Kimberlite clusters in the world. We have rare earth elements used in the production of new technologies. Major markets await.

Manufacturing and Export

Over the next decade, it is my government's goal that the value of manufacturing shipments from Saskatchewan will double from both small and large manufacturing sectors. We are well on our way. Saskatchewan manufacturing shipments grew by twice the national average last year.

Working with our industrial and research parks, technology will be commercialized. A favourable investment climate for small business and manufacturing will be fostered.

A new, five-year operating agreement with Saskatchewan Trade and Export Partnership will assist new exporters and continually seek new opportunities. An Asia-Pacific Desk will be established in the Department of Industry and Resources to pursue opportunities in Asia.

In global trade, every opportunity to seek fair trade and a level playing field for our producers and exporters will be seized.

Research and Development

Praised as the social laboratory of Canada for generations, Saskatchewan's creativity has driven discovery and innovation in science, technology and industry throughout our history. Research and development will be even more important to our economy in our second century than it was in our first.

In the coming year, success will be built on the work of Saskatoon's Innovation Place and Regina's Research Park, and such innovators as our universities, the Canadian Light Source Synchrotron, the Petroleum Technology Research Centre, the Prairie Agricultural Machinery Institute, the Saskatchewan Forest Centre, the Vaccine and Infectious Disease Organization and the Saskatchewan Research Council.

Saskatchewan is fast becoming known as the Science Province.

Agriculture

Saskatchewan's agricultural sector has benefited from significant technological and innovative advancements in the past century. Global trade, diversification, and changing demographics have also had major impacts on the industry.

In recent years, no other sector has faced such daunting challenges including a significant cost/price squeeze. Our history is inseparable from the farm economy, and the agricultural sector will continue to play a central role in our province's future.

As we build a successful future, livestock and grain production sectors will be vital. Farming in Saskatchewan will continue to evolve, and we will continue to be leaders in a changing world.

Guided by the recommendations of the Action Committee on the Rural Economy, and the advice of other leaders in the agricultural sector, we will facilitate further diversification to keep pace with growing opportunities.

Traditional and organic processing will be enhanced. Feedlot capacity in the province will be expanded.

In the coming months, the work being done around food processing opportunities, such as those at the University of Saskatchewan Food Centre will be highlighted, and investment in value-added food production will be pursued. Over the next two decades, the utilization of our abundant water resources will increase the potential of irrigated crops.

My government will fully fund the provincial share of the Canadian Agricultural Income Stabilization (CAIS) program for 2005, while continuing to seek improvements to farm programs and a fairer share of national support for Saskatchewan farm families.

The land that has sustained past generations will sustain generations in the future.

Transportation

As our future unfolds, Saskatchewan's economy and standard of living will depend upon a solid transportation network.

During this session, the safety and efficiency of our transportation network will be improved by continuing the twinning of the TransCanada and Yellowhead highways, with an additional 40 kilometers in total to be open to traffic within a year.

My government will work with communities to support a short-line rail network that links with Canada's major railways and alternate grain handling facilities.

Our vast north has tremendous economic potential and transportation is essential in reaching that potential. In addition to connecting people with jobs, and industries with resources, northern roads are lifelines that connect families with education and healthcare services, and connect communities with each other and the world.

In September, a major new project connecting La Loche to Fort McMurray in Alberta was announced to link these northern communities. This is a good example of two provinces working together to build a stronger Canada.

In this session, my government will announce a major multiyear northern road building strategy that will include an all weather road to the far north. This work with northern residents and communities will enhance economic development and create new opportunities for prosperity.

As part of a long-term vision, the groundwork will be laid for twinning the highway between Prince Albert and Saskatoon, and for the further development of north-south corridors into the United States.

To honour all Saskatchewan Veterans, Highway #2 from Moose Jaw to Prince Albert will be named Veterans' Memorial Highway.

DIVERSE AND GROWING COMMUNITIES

Our provincial motto is "from many peoples strength." We want our children to grow up together in a Saskatchewan more diverse than ever before.

First Nations and Métis People

Our diversity is our strength. While there is much work left to do, we are working together to respect our strong First Nations and Métis traditions, cultures and teachings.

The upcoming meeting with First Ministers and Aboriginal leaders puts national focus on issues of great significance to Saskatchewan and ways of working more effectively to improve social and economic outcomes for First Nations and Métis people.

We are strengthening our relationships in an environment of mutual respect. This is demonstrated by working closely with First Nations and Métis people in the province, and by respecting and building upon their historic Treaty and constitutional relationships with the federal government.

Saskatchewan will have communities built upon the history and tradition of the First Nations, Métis and immigrant ancestors from centuries ago.

Immigration

Just as we did 100 years ago, Saskatchewan is turning again to the world and opening our doors to new immigrants.

In partnership with communities, businesses and immigrant families, the Saskatchewan Immigrant Nominee Program will identify and attract thousands of new immigrants to our workplaces, farms and businesses.

When the program is fully operational by 2008, my government expects approximately 5,000 new immigrants a year will make Saskatchewan their home.

Government will work with our settlement agencies, postsecondary institutions, occupational bodies, and other partners to connect newcomers to jobs, communities and cultural groups - to ease their transition and create a more welcoming atmosphere in which they will prosper and thrive.

Communities and Housing

In the future, Saskatchewan communities will be larger and more cosmopolitan, requiring sophisticated infrastructure and services, and safe and affordable housing.

In the years to come, HomeFirst, the province's five-year, $200 million strategy will bring safe, adequate, affordable housing and home ownership within reach for thousands of lower income families.

In this session, my government will establish a new Building Communities Fund to meet the economic development, cultural, social and recreational needs of our province.

The province recognizes that municipalities provide a wide range of services to their residents, and will continue to work with municipalities to address revenue sharing needs. Efforts will be maintained with school divisions, municipalities and other stakeholders, to develop a long-term solution to education property tax relief that is in the best interests of students and taxpayers.

My government will also ensure that individuals and families have the support they need to deal with the rise of energy costs. My government has introduced the Saskatchewan "Energy Share" program to help consumers this winter with the increased costs of heating, and will provide support to homeowners who make energy-saving upgrades.

Culture and Tourism

Among Saskatchewan's most attractive features are the creative and cultural accomplishments of its people and its communities. Saskatchewan is known both nationally and internationally as a destination for visitors in search of natural beauty, ecotourism, and First Nations and Métis cultural experiences. There will be growing recognition of Saskatchewan as a world class venue for major sporting and cultural events.

Building on the success of Saskatchewan's Centennial Gala, over the coming months, my government will continue to pursue the attraction of major Canadian music events for a year of artistic celebration in 2007.

Supporting the social and economic vitality of our communities and regions, government will build and support cultural industries in the province.

In 2006, the 100th anniversary of the Royal Saskatchewan Museum and the 15th anniversary of our Saskatchewan Communications Network will be celebrated.

Saskatchewan's film and video industry, already equipped with state-of-the art production facilities, is flourishing because of our vast landscapes, historical venues and creative, talented and professionally trained people.

Support for Saskatchewan's film and video industry in its efforts to attract new productions will be enhanced through increases in the film employment tax credit. We will make the home of Corner Gas even more competitive and successful.

Saskatchewan has always been a cradle of creativity, and will always be a natural and welcoming home for artists of all disciplines.

We value for our children culturally rich and diverse communities in which they can live and grow.

AN UNBREAKABLE SOCIAL FABRIC: NO ONE LEFT BEHIND

Building on sound environmental stewardship and economic momentum, over the next twenty years this government envisions a Saskatchewan with an unbreakable social fabric. My government is determined that on the path to future opportunity and prosperity, no one will be left behind.

This social fabric relies heavily on the commitment, dedication and generosity of volunteers. Through the Premier's Voluntary Sector Initiative, the province is formalizing its long-standing relationship with the thousands of organizations that comprise our voluntary sector. Government acknowledges the invaluable contribution of the voluntary sector – and individual volunteers throughout the province – to our quality of life.

Health

The birthplace of Medicare will continue to be the model jurisdiction of publicly funded, universal health care, with fully integrated, modern services and facilities.

For the children of today and the children of tomorrow, good health begins early.

Over the years, government has heard from many, calling for new services in midwifery. In the coming months, support for midwifery services will be provided. Midwives will offer their skill and training as part of multi-disciplinary teams in hospital and community settings, contributing to care that is safe, flexible and meets the needs of families.

Work will continue with community service providers to support families with programs such as KidsFirst to ensure infants get the healthiest start in life.

Pediatric services across the province will be enhanced by the development of a Children's Hospital. This centre of excellence for pediatric care, to be located in Saskatoon, will be a children's hospital within a hospital, and will feature child-centred, concentrated expertise and an integrated approach to care.

The training of our health care professionals must be ensured to meet the needs of the province. To this end, support for the College of Medicine to train future doctors will increase. A new state-of-the-art Academic Health Sciences Centre will bring health science educators, researchers and students together in one facility. In this session, a major investment will be made toward this project.

A forward-looking strategy for training, retraining and recruiting physicians, nurses and other health professionals, will be released this year. There will be particular attention paid to ensuring that trained young people are able to find work in Saskatchewan's health care system.

Renewal of our health infrastructure is necessary to provide safe patient care and safe working conditions. Construction is underway, or will soon begin, on health facilities in Ile-a-la-Crosse, Herbert, Outlook, Regina, Maidstone, Preeceville, Humboldt, Swift Current, Moosomin, Saskatoon and Yorkton.

Recognizing that substance abuse wreaks personal, social and economic havoc, my government will place a high priority on the implementation of the Premier's Project Hope, a three-year plan to prevent and treat substance abuse in this province --- an initiative that was acknowledged recently by the Canadian Centre on Substance Abuse.

Saskatchewan's surgical wait list is declining. Timely and appropriate surgical care continues to be a priority for the province, a goal that we are achieving with the support of the health regions, physicians and other health care providers.

To meet growing needs, diagnostic imaging capacity has been enhanced by the addition of equipment and expansion of hours of operation. Capacity has increased by 80 per cent from five years ago and by the end of March 2006, MRI capacity will have increased by over 100 per cent.

Safety and Security

An unbreakable social fabric requires that our communities and neighbourhoods are safe. Criminal activity is not tolerated and gangs are not welcome in Saskatchewan. My government will work with the RCMP, municipal police services and communities to disrupt and dismantle organized criminal groups.

In this session, legislation will be introduced to curtail gang activity, and empower police to combat organized crime. Ways will be examined to discourage the recruitment of gang members.

In this session, government, Aboriginal leaders, communities, police services and other agencies will partner to develop an effective province-wide strategy for missing person cases. This strategy will include a task force and other initiatives to empower citizens to combat domestic and other violence. Further, it will ensure that sufficient resources are provided to the police so that investigations of violence or missing persons are never closed in Saskatchewan until they are solved.

Continuing Saskatchewan's leadership in innovative justice practices, the Aboriginal Court for northern Saskatchewan will expand, a new police complaints process will be implemented, our domestic violence courts will grow, a Drug Treatment Court will be established, and improvements will be made to our Coroner's Office.

This past year, Saskatchewan faced emergencies related to severe weather, such as widespread flooding, including in the Cumberland House, Arborfield and Lloydminster regions. We will work with communities as they continue to rebuild. Funding for the Provincial Disaster Assistance Program is being increased this year to assist in these efforts.

In the year to come, our emergency management system will be strengthened through provincial, community and regional delivery of protection and emergency services.

In addition, work is continuing with other provinces, territories, the federal government, and regional health authorities to develop a federal-provincial influenza pandemic plan.

It is my government's vision our children will grow up in safe and secure neighbourhoods and communities.

Working People

Even in the midst of today's unprecedented prosperity, some workers do not earn enough income to adequately provide for themselves and their families. Many workers are without health and pension benefits.

As the children of our Centennial enter their working years, it is my government's vision that no one in the Province of Saskatchewan will work for wages that leave them in poverty, and that every worker in Saskatchewan will have full access to health care and pension benefits.

My government is moving ahead on its three-year commitment to increase the minimum wage, enhance protection for health care workers and firefighters, and better support the balance of work and family.

Over the coming months, my government looks forward to receiving the report of the Commission on Improving Work Opportunities for Saskatchewan Residents. My government will act on the Report.

Community-based organizations, and their workers, provide a critical array of services such as group homes for persons with intellectual disabilities, vocational centres serving persons with disabilities, child care, and mobile crisis units for children and families.

In order to ensure the stability and effectiveness of community-based services to the public, additional funding of about $30 million over a three-year period will be provided to address issues of staff wages, recruitment and retention for these agencies.

Education

As our economy and labour markets grow, Saskatchewan has an opportunity to ensure that all of our people benefit from the prosperity being created.

To take full advantage of these opportunities, Saskatchewan people need to have the tools to succeed at every stage of life.

All children should have the best possible early learning and child care experiences, and today's families should have the necessary support and assistance in their communities. To this end, a pre-kindergarten program for four-year-olds will be established and work will be undertaken to expand high quality and accessible child care throughout the province.

My government's goal is that by the time the children of our Centennial graduate from high school, Saskatchewan will lead the country in educational achievement and literacy rates.

Our newly restructured school divisions, and the newly established Literacy Commission, are well-positioned to support this goal.

Skills training and apprenticeship opportunities will be expanded to ensure that our training system meets the needs of Saskatchewan people. In the coming months, there will be work to build on the recommendations of a comprehensive external review of the training and apprenticeship system in this province.

My government will work with Saskatchewan's post-secondary institutions, including our universities, SIAST, regional colleges and First Nations and Métis institutions, to ensure that students have access to affordable and high quality learning opportunities that build careers here, and meet critical labour needs of our province.

Youth

Saskatchewan's young people are deeply involved in our communities and workplaces, shaping this province's future. For example, with government, young people participate in the Provincial Youth Advisory Committee, the GradWorks Intern Development program, the Leaders of Tomorrow program and Saskatchewan's Green Team.

My government will introduce new Saskatchewan Youth Award, to recognize the commitments and accomplishments of youth in the province and to show appreciation for those young people who have dedicated their time and talents to communities across Saskatchewan.

Seniors

As we look forward to our new century, we are reminded of those who have brought us to this day – our seniors, our elders. With respect and pride, we salute and thank them. They deserve the best in their quality of life and health care, with full opportunity to participate in the lives of their families and communities.

In the coming months, to acknowledge our seniors and elders, my government will introduce a Saskatchewan Seniors' Gold Card for residents 65 years of age and older. This will provide a source of information, and a passport to a variety of programs.

Conclusion

The year 2005 has been one of celebration and homecoming, of thoughtful reflection on our proud history and eager anticipation of our future.

In the volunteer capital of Canada, we celebrated our cooperative and community spirit, our exemplary work ethic, and our famous qualities of compassion and generosity. With a team of 6,000 volunteers, we played host to young athletes and artists from across the country for the Jeux du Canada Games.

We celebrated with Her Majesty the Queen and His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh.

We celebrated our artists in a gala event, we paddled the North and walked the South, and we honoured First Nations and Métis Women, Veterans and the peace-keepers of today.

We celebrated with our elders. We celebrated with our children.

We lit the living skies with fireworks to usher in a new century.

We celebrated our connections to this land, our connections to one another and our connections to the whole human family.

We celebrated our place in Canada.

From the ruggedly beautiful forests and lakes of our breathtaking north, to the fertile hills and plains of our parklands, to what native son W.O. Mitchell described as the skeleton requirements of land and sky, the magnificent Saskatchewan prairie, we celebrated our birthright in a land of natural wealth and wonder.

As we embark on our second century, let us consider how best to secure the birthright of the children of our Centennial.

As we move toward our new century, let us build together a green and prosperous economy, and diverse and growing communities with an unbreakable social fabric. Let us build a province where no one is left behind on the path to opportunity.

Twenty years from now, as we do today, may the children of our Centennial sing together, "we are many, we are one.... We love this place, Saskatchewan."

May divine providence continue to bless our province and guide this Assembly in all its deliberations.

God bless Saskatchewan. God bless Canada. God Save the Queen.

Her Honour the Lieutenant Governor then retired from the Chamber.

ADDRESS IN REPLY

The Assembly resumed the adjourned debate on the proposed motion of Ms. Junor, seconded by Mr. Harper:

That an Humble Address be presented to Her Honour the Lieutenant Governor as follows:

TO HER HONOUR THE HONOURABLE LYNDA M. HAVERSTOCK
Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Saskatchewan

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOUR:

We, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Saskatchewan, in Session assembled, humbly thank Your Honour for the gracious Speech which Your Honour has been pleased to address to us at the opening of the present Session.

and the proposed amendment thereto moved by Mr. Wall, seconded by Mr. Dearborn:

That the following words be added after the word "Session":

> However, this government no longer enjoys the confidence of the Assembly because of its lack of vision and initiative and its failure to address the issues that are most important to Saskatchewan people as demonstrated by ignoring the crisis in agriculture, the inability to set spending priorities consistent with the province's needs, the failure to grow the economy and create economic prosperity, by not delivering much needed services leaving many people behind, by forcing others to move out of the province for health care and by forcing people to pursue their careers and dreams elsewhere because they cannot find jobs in Saskatchewan.

The debate continuing on the motion and the amendment, the Speaker interrupted proceedings pursuant to Rule 14(3) and put the question on the amendment, which was negatived on the following Recorded Division:

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

Before Orders of the Day, I wish to bring to the attention of Members a concern about language used in the Chamber.

When using titles of ministers or parties in debate in this legislature, Members will be required to respect the dignity of the House and its Members by using the official titles assigned to political parties and to Ministers. The use of humour, when done in good taste, adds to the debate. However, engaging in name calling lowers the level of debate and discredits all Members. I draw the attention of Members to Beauchesne, (6th ed.), citation 484 and to a previous Speaker's Ruling of March 29, 1996 for further guidance. Furthermore, Members who do not use proper titles during debates will be considered out of order.

STATEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

(Bill Nos. 27 and 201 of 2005)

I draw to the attention of Members that this Assembly has two bills on the Order Paper that contain provisions with substantially the same purpose: Bill No. 27 – The Youth Drug Detoxification and Stabilization Act, and Bill No. 201 – The Protection of Children Abusing Drugs Act. Both bills propose means to detain youth for the purposes of detoxification in situations of drug abuse.

According to Erskine May Parliamentary Practice, Twenty-second Edition, p. 499:

> "There is no rule or custom which restrains the presentation of two or more bills relating to the same subject, and containing similar provisions. But if a decision of the House has already been taken on one such bill, for example, if the bill has been given or refused a second reading, the other is not proceeded with if it contains substantially the same provisions ..."

This Legislative Assembly has numerous precedents on the subject of the "same question rule" with respect to bills. It has been ruled that once the Assembly has given or refused second reading on one bill, the Speaker must then prevent any further consideration of the other bill.

On November 28, 2005, Bill No. 27 received second reading and consequently, it is necessary that I order that Bill No. 201 be removed from the Order Paper.

CONDOLENCES

Moved by the Hon. Mr. Calvert, seconded by Mr. Wall, by leave of the Assembly:

> That this Assembly records with sorrow and regret the passing of a former Member of this Assembly and expresses its grateful appreciation of the contribution he made to his community, his constituency and to the province.
> John George Egnatoff, who passed away on August 12, 2005, was a Member of this Legislative Assembly from 1948 until 1952 representing the constituency of Melfort for the Liberal Party.
> Mr. Egnatoff was born on August 18th, 1914 on his parents' homestead near Perdue. He received his early education in Saskatoon at King Edward and Wilson elementary schools and at City Park Collegiate. Mr. Egnatoff trained to be a teacher at the Provincial Normal School and at the University of Saskatchewan. He completed post-graduate studies at the Ontario College of Education and at the University of Toronto. Mr. Egnatoff married Mildred Chard on August 18th, 1941. He is survived by his wife and two children.
> Mr. Egnatoff devoted his career to the field of education. He began as a teacher in a rural one-room school before assuming administrative duties as a principal. In 1958, he joined the staff of the teachers' college before moving to the University of Saskatchewan in 1964. He remained at the University until his retirement in 1978 as head of the department of educational administration.
> Mr. Egnatoff's influence on the development of education extended beyond the classroom. His tenure on the Saskatoon Board of Education as a trustee and chair extended over two decades. He also served as president of the Saskatchewan Teachers' Federation, the Saskatchewan and Canadian School Trustees organizations, and was a life-member of the Canadian Education Association. Mr. Egnatoff's dedication to the field of education was recognized by his investiture into the Order of Canada in 1981 and by the unique honour of having a school named after him.

Mr. Egnatoff volunteered his time with a variety of local organizations. He was an active life deacon with the First Baptist Church and a community panel member of the National Parole Board. He acted as director of the Forum of Young Canadians and on the board of the Saskatoon Symphony Orchestra. Over the course of his 58 year membership in Rotary, Mr. Egnatoff helped to establish four new clubs in Saskatoon and Nigeria while also serving as District Governor. He received the Rotary Golden Wheel award for excellence in education and community service in 1995.

In recording its own deep sense of loss and bereavement, this Assembly expresses its most sincere sympathy with members of the bereaved family.

A debate arising and the question being put, it was agreed to.

Moved by the Hon. Mr. Calvert, seconded by Mr. Wall, by leave of the Assembly:

That this Assembly records with sorrow and regret the passing of a former Member of this Assembly and expresses its grateful appreciation of the contribution she made to her community, her constituency and to the province.

Gladys Strum, who passed away on August 15, 2005, was a Member of this Legislative Assembly from 1960 until 1964, representing the constituency of Saskatoon City for the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation.

Gladys Strum was born on February 4, 1906 in Gladstone, Manitoba. Mrs. Strum was educated at local primary and secondary schools before attending the Moosomin and Regina Normal Schools. She later pursued her studies at the University of Saskatchewan and graduated with degrees in Arts and Education. She married Warner Strum on November 16, 1926. Their daughter Carol was born in 1930.

Mrs. Strum trained as a teacher and taught in schools intermittently in Saskatchewan and British Columbia throughout her life. Her concern for the well being of her neighbours was routed in her own experiences growing up on the family farm and later the challenges posed by the Depression and the illness of her husband.

Together with her husband, Mrs. Strum was a pioneering member of the CCF and sought elected office on several occasions. She was the first woman to head a major political party in Canada when she assumed the presidency of the CCF in Saskatchewan in 1944. The following year, she was the sole female Member elected to the House of Commons in 1945. Mrs. Strum was a dedicated supporter of the provincial CCF and was actively involved in many areas, including serving as a Member of this Assembly.

In recording its own deep sense of loss and bereavement, this Assembly expresses its most sincere sympathy with members of the bereaved family.

A debate arising and the question being put, it was agreed to.

Moved by the Hon. Mr. Taylor, seconded by the Hon. Ms. Atkinson, by leave of the Assembly:

That the Resolutions just passed, together with a transcript of oral tributes to the memory of the deceased, be communicated to the bereaved families on behalf of the Assembly by Mr. Speaker.

PRIVATE MEMBERS' MOTIONS

The Order of the Day being called for Motion No. 1, the Hon. Mr. Yates raised a point of order that quorum was not present and, pursuant to Rule 6(3), a count was taken. There being a quorum, it was moved by Mr. Huyghebaert, seconded by Mr. Toth:

> That this government no longer enjoys the confidence of the Assembly because of its lack of vision and initiative and its failure to address the issues that are most important to Saskatchewan people, as demonstrated by ignoring the crisis in agriculture, the inability to set spending priorities consistent with the province's needs, the failure to grow the economy and create economic prosperity, by not delivering much-needed services leaving many people behind, by forcing others to move out of the province for health care, and by forcing people to pursue their careers and dreams elsewhere because they cannot find jobs in Saskatchewan.

A debate arising, it was on motion of Mr. Toth, adjourned.

The Deputy Speaker adjourned the Assembly without question put, pursuant to Rule 3(2).

The Assembly adjourned at 1:00 p.m. until Monday at 1:30 p.m.

MOTIONS FOR RETURNS (NOT DEBATABLE)

RETURNS NOS. 572 TO 574

The Order of the Day being called for Motions for Returns (Not Debatable) Nos. 572, 573 and 574, they were transferred to the Motions for Returns (Debatable) classification.

STATEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

Before calling on the Member for Saskatoon Silver Springs (Mr. Cheveldayoff), I want to advise the Member that his motion for a Seventy-five Minute Debate contains a preamble. The motion begins with the phrase "That since the Saskatchewan Business Tax Review Committee of 2005 concluded that 'Saskatchewan's business tax structure is outdated and poorly suited to deal with the competitive challenges of today and the future...'" Notwithstanding the generally relaxed practice of this Assembly when it comes to private members motions, this phrase falls into the category of a preamble.

It is a long standing practice of this Assembly that preambles are out of order unless in a formal or non-contentious motion. For instance, whereas clauses have been permitted in formal constitutional motions put before this Assembly such as the Meech Lake Accord. Otherwise, when motions have contained obvious preambles, the motions have been ruled out of order.

Therefore, given the discretion of the Speaker to modify motions with respect to form under Beauchesne's Rules and Forms, 6th edition, paragraph 566(4), I modify the motion by eliminating the preamble.

MOTION FOR A SEVENTY-FIVE MINUTE DEBATE

The Order of the Day being called for a Motion for a Seventy-five Minute Debate, it was moved by Mr. Cheveldayoff, seconded by Mr. Krawetz:

> That this Assembly urge the government to act on the corporate tax reform recommendations of the Business Tax Review Committee in this budget year adhering to the implementation schedule; and further,
> That this Assembly urge the government to reduce the PST to six percent in this budget year and defer further sales tax reform as recommended by the Business Tax Review Committee.

A debate arising, and the period of seventy-five minutes having expired pursuant to Rule 19(5), the Deputy Speaker interrupted proceedings.

PRIVATE MEMBERS' MOTIONS

The Order of the Day being called for Motion No. 2, it was moved by Mr. Borgerson, seconded by the Hon. Mr. Quennell:

> That the Saskatchewan Legislative Assembly endorse the government's creation of the new Public Complaints Commission which brings about fundamental changes to the public complaint investigation and decision process.

On motion of the Hon. Mr. Hagel

From 1942 until 1946, he served as a medical officer with the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry in England and Italy. He was awarded the Military Cross for courage under fire during the Italian campaign. Following the war, he returned to his surgical practice in Saskatoon.

Dr. Worobetz's involvement in the medical field extended beyond his practice. He held positions on the executives of the local, provincial and national medical organizations. He was sought to pass on his knowledge and experience as a clinical lecturer and senior associate in the College of Medicine.

In his private life, Dr. Worobetz was an active participant in the affairs of his community. He provided personal and financial support to several cultural, religious and charitable organizations. With his wife, he created the Stephen and Michelene Worobetz Foundation to support community organizational and personal community enhancement opportunities.

The breadth of Dr. Worobetz's public service was recognized by numerous awards. He was a Fellow of the Royal Society of Physicians and Surgeons, an Honourary Doctor of Laws, an Officer of the Order of Canada, a life member of the Knights of Columbus, and the Canadian and Saskatchewan Medical Associations. He was a recipient of the Shevchenko Medal in recognition of his leadership in the Ukrainian community.

Dr. Worobetz was the first person of Ukrainian origin to be appointed Lieutenant Governor of Saskatchewan. During his tenure from 1970 until 1976, he sought to draw attention to those initiatives and activities that enhanced the Saskatchewan society.

In recording its own deep sense of loss and bereavement, this Assembly expresses its most sincere sympathy with members of the bereaved family.

STATEMENT BY THE SPEAKER
(Question Period Relevancy and Personal Charge)

On Friday March 31, 2006, the Opposition House Leader (Mr. Gantefoer) raised a point of order concerning remarks made by the Deputy Premier (Mr. Serby) during Question Period. The Opposition House leader stated that the Deputy Premier made an inference that the Member for Saskatoon Northwest (Mr. Merriman) was deliberately misleading the Assembly. Although the point of order was dealt with at the time, I have reviewed the Hansard verbatim of this matter and find two additional issues arising from that Question Period, which must be addressed.

With respect to Question Period, it is stated in Marleau and Monpetit, House of Commons Procedure and Practice, at page 431, that: "According to practice, replies are to be as brief as possible, to deal with the subject matter raised and to be phrased in language that does not provoke disorder in the House." This Assembly follows the same practice. I want to quote a Speaker's Ruling dated December 22, 1986:

> "I want to re-emphasize that the Chair cannot insist that a Minister must answer a question in a certain way. As long as the answer is relevant, it is in order even if the answer isn't the one the questioner is seeking. I define relevance in answers the same broad way as in all debate in the Assembly. A remark is relevant if it deals with the topic raised."

(Similar rulings were made December 5, 1983; April 29, 1985; May 27, 1985; December 18, 1986; and August 12, 1987.)

I find that the Deputy Premier's responses to the questions asked by the Member for Melville-Saltcoats (Mr. Bjornerud) were not relevant and therefore out of order.

I now want to go on to a second matter. It is a long held practice of this Assembly that if a charge is to be made against a Member; it must be done directly by means of a substantive motion. Through the course of his three responses in Question Period, the Deputy Premier in effect made a charge against another Member of this Assembly. On page 917 of Hansard, the Deputy Premier states that the Member for Saskatoon Northwest "made a number of false statements in this House." Later on the Deputy Premier called on the Leader of the Opposition to remove the Member for Saskatoon Northwest from the Assembly. He then goes on to say, in effect, that the Member in question had falsely disseminated information, and did so knowingly.

Although the Deputy Premier did not state the Member for Saskatoon Northwest had deliberately mislead the Assembly, I find, after a review of Hansard, taking the Deputy Premier's remarks as a whole, that such a charge was, in effect, made albeit with different words. Beauchesne's 6th edition, paragraph 481, states that a Member, while speaking, may not make a personal charge against another Member. The comments of the Deputy Premier made during Question Period are out of order. I ask the Deputy Premier to rise and withdraw the personal charge made during Question Period of March 31.

Thereupon, the Hon. Mr. Serby withdrew his remarks.

PROROGATION SPEECH

10:05 a.m.

His Honour The Lieutenant Governor, having entered the Chamber, took his seat upon the Throne. His Honour was then pleased to deliver the following speech:

Mr. Speaker, Members of the Legislative Assembly:

It is my duty to release you from further attendance at the Second Session of the Twenty-Fifth Legislature.

In thus relieving you, I would like to thank and to commend you for the progress made and the commitments fulfilled.

This Session began during this great province's centennial celebrations – celebrations that allowed Saskatchewan to look back on a century of achievement and progress, and to look ahead to a future filled with opportunity.

Saskatchewan people from one end of the province to the other participated in more than 4,000 events commemorating the centennial. It was with great pride that Saskatchewan celebrated its extraordinary history, culture and accomplishments.

In March of this year, you celebrated the 100th Anniversary of this Legislative Assembly and the partnership with First Nations and Métis who created Saskatchewan. On that anniversary, the Federation of Saskatchewan Indian Nations presented a traditionally-crafted beaded moose-hide runner and beaver pelt cushion to the Assembly. On that historic day, you recognized the significance of Treaty-making as part of this province's heritage, which is a part of this Assembly's parliamentary tradition.

Your accomplishments during the Session built on this legacy of diversity, hope and optimism to fulfill commitments to Saskatchewan people.

In this Session, you provided both new programs and new protections for young people.

You froze university tuition. You created 2,700 new training and employment spaces, and you provided $100 million in student assistance. Capital investments were made in Kindergarten to Grade 12 schools and additional funds were allocated to expand pre-kindergarten programs.

You further improved services to Saskatchewan families with the introduction of the Child and Youth Mental Health Strategy, the expansion of the Premier's Project Hope, and the restriction of the sale of ingredients which can be used to make crystal meth.

You passed The Youth Drug Detoxification and Stabilization Act to ensure an accessible, flexible, and effective treatment approach for youth with substance abuse issues, and already 60 Saskatchewan young people have benefited.

To further protect youth and to guide parents and guardians, you enacted The Film and Video Classification Amendment Act, 2006 to prohibit the sale, rental or exhibition of violent and explicit video games to children.

This Session, you also focused on continued efforts to build a green and prosperous economy.

An initial agreement to explore the feasibility of a clean coal project was signed. Wind power was expanded to supply the largest percentage of energy from wind of any jurisdiction in Canada with the opening of the Centennial Wind Power Facility.

You strengthened the Saskatchewan economy with reductions to business taxes, including phasing out the Corporate Capital Tax, eliminating the Corporate Capital Tax immediately on new investments, reducing the Corporate Income Tax, and reducing the small business threshold.

These measures not only allowed you to build a positive climate for investment and job growth, they also allowed you to build on the social programs that have been established and supported by Saskatchewan people for generations.

You have strengthened public health care in this Session by providing the largest-ever budget investment in health. Aging equipment was replaced, improving the ability to detect and to diagnose disease. New cancer treatment equipment was purchased. Wait times for surgery and diagnostic tests were decreased.

You also continued your efforts to create safer communities and neighbourhoods, and focused on enhancing the protections afforded to Saskatchewan citizens.

To make roads safer, The Traffic Safety Amendment Act, 2005 established an immediate 24-hour license suspension for drivers who fail a standard field sobriety test. This amendment protects both drivers and others from potential harm.

The Safer Communities and Neighbourhoods Amendment Act, 2005 proposed amendments to hinder potential crime, violence, intimidation and recruitment that may arise from gang activities. These changes strengthen legislation that creates a hostile environment for crime and has delivered impressive results in shutting down properties where illegal activity is occurring.

The Victims of Crime Amendment Act, 2006, set out guiding principles so that victims of crime have their voices heard in the criminal justice system. It also ensures the continued fairness of the victims' compensation program and increased the time available to apply for compensation.

The passage of The Consumer Protection Amendment Act, 2005 strengthened confidence in the marketplace by setting out new rules for purchases and agreements entered into by consumers.

The Cost of Credit Disclosure Amendment Act, 2005 was enacted to ensure consumers receive accurate information to allow for better-informed credit decisions.

Finally, legislation was updated to protect both tenants and landlords who enter into rental agreements with the passage of The Residential Tenancies Act, 2006.

Thus, in the Session now closing, you have assisted young people and families, built a stronger green and prosperous economy, invested in social programs, and created safer communities.

It is with these accomplishments that you have built on the momentum of Saskatchewan's great Centennial year and launched boldly into Saskatchewan's second century.

I thank you all for your unyielding dedication, and your efforts on behalf of the people of Saskatchewan throughout this Session.

In taking leave of you, I wish you the full blessings of Providence.

The Hon. Mr. Hagel, Provincial Secretary, then said:

It is the will and pleasure of His Honour the Lieutenant Governor that this Legislative Assembly be prorogued until later today, the 26th day of October, 2006 at 2:00 p.m., and this Legislative Assembly is accordingly prorogued.

10:14 a.m.

Hon. P. Myron Kowalsky,
Speaker

It is anticipated that the roadway will re-open to traffic early to mid May subject to weather.

Note: Due to deterioration on the RM detour road, Highway 15 was reopened on March 27th. department crews will monitor the condition of Highway 15 and if necessary (and if the RM road is capable) divert traffic back onto the RM road to minimize the overall potential damages to both roadways.

Mr. Dearborn asked the Government the following Question No. 766, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Higgins:

To the Minister Responsible for Saskatchewan Telecommunications Corporation: What internal controls are in place for the protection of privacy for SaskTel customers?

Answer:

SaskTel has in place both a Security Policy and a Privacy Policy. SaskTel's Security Policy covers all aspects of physical security and logical security for all of SaskTel's corporate assets. The Security Policy is designed to the industry ISO 17799 standard. This policy is used to safeguard personal information in SaskTel's possession, as well as protect all of our assets. SaskTel also has a Privacy Policy. This policy is based on the legislated standards described in Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) and on the 10 principles found in the CSA Model Code for the protection of personal information.

Mr. Dearborn asked the Government the following Question No. 767, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Higgins:

To the Minister Responsible for Saskatchewan Telecommunications Corporation: Has SaskTel performed an audit of these privacy controls?

Answer:

During 2004, two specific Privacy audits were completed to assess Privacy Awareness and Privacy Readiness. The Privacy Awareness Audit was completed to assess the state of awareness in the organization in preparation for full compliance to the Privacy requirements set out for SaskTel. The Privacy Readiness Audit was completed in late 2004 to review the current state of readiness for full compliance to the Privacy requirements by December 31, 2004. Other internal audit work has been completed around systems security controls. This audit work is not always specific to Privacy controls, but systems security controls are necessary to ensure certain aspects of our Privacy requirements are met.

To the Minister Responsible for Saskatchewan Telecommunications Corporation: (1) Was an outside agency contracted to perform an audit of privacy controls? (2) If so, which agency performed this audit?

Mr. Dearborn asked the Government the following Question No. 769, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Higgins:

To the Minister Responsible for Saskatchewan Telecommunications Corporation: What has been found as a result of any privacy audits performed by SaskTel?

Answer:

The two Privacy Audits completed during 2004 concluded that at the beginning of SaskTel's Privacy Program implementation that some lack of awareness existed around sources of privacy information and details of the Privacy code that SaskTel would be following by December 31, 2004. However, SaskTel responded to this concern by developing and delivering mandatory training to all employees as part of the Privacy Program implementation. The Readiness Assessment completed near year-end concluded that there was a high degree of confidence that SaskTel would meet its privacy requirements by December 31, 2004 and that some additional implementation would be required on certain aspects of the Privacy Program once the initial requirements were implemented.

To the Minister of Corrections and Public Safety: How did management of the department monitor any established programs and controls to mitigate fraud risks or to help prevent or detect fraud in the year 2002-2003?

Answer:

The Department of Corrections and Public Safety continually monitors, assesses and updates the systems and controls that are in place to reduce the risk of loss of public money or property. These systems and controls have been developed based upon the government-wide internal control framework encompassing legislations, Financial Administration Manual (FAM) policies, human resource policies, and information technology policies.

The department has taken a number of specific measures to help mitigate the risk of public money or property. These measures include but are not limited to delivery of awareness training to staff on internal controls. Corrections and Public Safety has reviewed and strengthened our delegated signing authorities for financial transactions. The delegations are updated on an on-going basis. The department has an Internal Audit Program in place and continues to review department operations. Treasury Board Branch within Finance provides the Department of Corrections and Public Safety with additional oversight and directions, through its budget review and monitoring functions and its supervision of the department's performance reporting.

The Provincial Comptroller within Finance has specific and important functions related to overall financial management within the Government. These include:

- establishing and communicating policies and directives on behalf of Treasury Board through the Financial Administration Manual (FAM);
- maintaining and operating the Government's central financial management system;
- maintaining budget/appropriating accounts; and
- monitoring the adequacy of internal control in the Government, through review of financial systems and post-audit of payment and payroll transactions.

Finally, the Department of Corrections and Public Safety also utilizes and appreciates the work of third parties, such as the Provincial Auditor who helps provide another check and balance on the Government's internal control systems. The department agrees with and implements the vast majority of his recommendations.

No entity, not even the government can provide absolute assurance against fraud or misuse of resources. Nor would it be cost-effective to try and do so. The Government believes its internal control framework provides reasonable assurance to mitigate these risks and achieves it in a responsible manner

Mr. Elhard asked the Government the following Question No. 903, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Atkinson:

To the Minister of Advanced Education: As of April 11, 2006, what is the length of time a student must wait on a waiting list before they will be offered a seat in the following programs at SIAST: Combined Laboratory X-Ray Technician, Cytotechnolgy, Medical Laboratory Technology, Medical Radiologic Technology, Practical Nursing, Industrial Mechanics, Welding, and Electrician?

Answer:

The length of time an individual student has to wait depends upon where they are on the list and other factors such as the availability of the individual when invited to enroll in the program, personal choices and obligations. Wait lists are very dynamic and can change on a daily basis. The chart below is based on SIAST wait list information as of April 12, 2006. SIAST has not yet estimated the number of seats for these programs for 2006-2007 academic year.

In addition, the Regional Colleges offer programs in practical nursing, industrial mechanics, pre-employment welding and pre-employment electrician.

Program	SIAST
	Capacity	Wait list
Combined Laboratory X-Ray Technician	16	38
Cytotechnology	4	16
Medical Laboratory Technology	16	45
Medical Radiologic Technology	16	284
Practical Nursing
• Wascana	56	166
• Woodland	16	51
Industrial Mechanics - Pre-employment
• Kelsey	14	65
• Woodland	14	21
Welding - Pre-employment
• Kelsey	42	103
• Palliser	24	25
• Wascana	36	56
• Woodland	24	24
Electrician - Pre-employment
• Palliser	12x2	122
• Woodland	12x2	54

An apprentice is offered a technical training opportunity within the academic year that they have achieved the required number of hours worked. Therefore there are no wait lists for apprenticeship training. It is also important to note that it is not necessary to complete a pre-employment program in order to enter the Electrician trade – employers are able to indenture new employees on the spot and put them through the apprenticeship system.

Mr. Huyghebaert asked the Government the following Question No. 906, which was answered by the Hon. Mr. Lautermilch:

To the Minister of Property Management: What was the appraised value of the Echo Valley Conference Centre?

Answer:

No agreement has been finalized to sell the former Echo Valley Conference Centre. For this reason, it would certainly be inappropriate for SPM to disclose the appraised value of the property. Furthermore, it is generally not the department's policy to disclose appraised values of properties that are up for disposal.

Mr. Huyghebaert asked the Government the following Question No. 907, which was answered by the Hon. Mr. Lautermilch:

To the Minister of Property Management: What was the sale value of the Echo Valley Conference Centre?

Should the Town exercise the option, the developer is required to demolish or refurbish the Administration Building and the Power House before December 31, 2010. The estimated demolition cost is $1,650,000.

Mr. McMorris asked the Government the following Question No. 908, which was answered by the Hon. Mr. Forbes:

To the Minister Responsible for Saskatchewan Water Corporation: (1) How much money is SaskWater spending to renovate and buy new office equipment for its offices in Moose Jaw? (2) Did SaskWater tender the contracts for the office renovation and new office equipment? (3) If so, how much was the amount of the successful bid?

Answer:

(1) The upfront cost of leasehold improvements at Victoria Place in Moose Jaw will be paid for by the landlord. The cost of these improvements will be provided for through new lease agreements for both SaskWater and the Saskatchewan Watershed Authority. SaskWater's rent will increase by $110,000 per year. The Saskatchewan Watershed Authority's rent will increase by $120,000 per year. These increases reflect:

a. the cost of renovations;
b. increased space;
c. space efficient, ergonomic work stations and storage units; and
d. inflation.

(2) Because the landlord will be paying the upfront cost of renovations, the landlord will manage the contracting and subcontracting of suppliers. It is the landlord's intention to utilize Saskatchewan-based suppliers.

(2) Has there been any correspondence between the department and the federal government in respect to the use of terminator genetics? (3) If so, could the Minister table the correspondence?

Answer:

(1) This government takes the view that the commercialization of Genetic Use Restriction Technologies (GURTs or terminator genes) for seed sterilization purposes should be further evaluated to determine what, if any, tangible benefits will accrue to the primary producer. We support the consensus decision at the Convention on Biological Diversity (held in Brazil) to not field test GURT until the appropriate scientific data is available. We also need to be sure that benefits of the technology do not outweigh the costs and to fully understand the impact it may have on market access.

(2) I have informed the federal government of Saskatchewan's position.

(3) The response to (1) outlines what I said in correspondence to the federal government.

All departments, including the Department of Industry and Resources, continually monitor, assess and update the systems and controls that are in place to reduce the risk of loss of public money or property. These systems and controls have been developed based upon the government-wide internal control framework encompassing legislation, Financial Administration Manual (FAM) policies, human resource policies and information technology policies.

The Department of Industry and Resources has taken a number of specific measures to help mitigate the risk to public money or property. These measures include but are not limited to employing segregation of duty, oversight responsibility (Executive Management Committee meetings, signing authorities, process review, monthly review of expenditure forecasts), audit of programs, independent verifications, contract controls, etc.

Central agencies, such as the Department of Finance, the Public Service Commission, the Information Technology Office, Executive Council and the Department of Justice have established and monitor government-wide policies and procedures with respect to financial, human resource, legal, information technology and related matters.

Treasury Board Branch within Finance also provides the Department of Industry and Resources with additional oversight and direction, through its budget review and monitoring function and its supervision of the departments' performance reporting.

The Provincial Comptroller within Finance has specific and important functions related to overall financial management within the Government. These include:

- establishing and communicating policies and directives on behalf of Treasury Board through the Financial Administration Manual (FAM);
- maintaining and operating the Government's central financial management system;
- maintaining budget/appropriation accounts; and,
- monitoring the adequacy of internal controls in the Government, through review of financial systems and post-audit of payment and payroll transactions.

Finally, the Department of Industry and Resources also utilizes and appreciates the work of third parties, such as the Provincial Auditor who helps provide another check and balance on the Government's internal control systems. The Department of Industry and Resources agrees with and implements the vast majority of his recommendations.

Mr. Weekes asked the Government the following Question No. 1015, which was answered by the Hon. Mr. Wartman:

To the Minister of Agriculture and Food: (1) With whom did the Minister and his officials meet with concerning Bill 28 – The Veterinarians Amendment Act, 2005? (2) At what dates and times did these meetings take place?

Answer:

(1) The process to update The Veterinarians Act, 1987 started in 2003. The process to update the Act included updating the provisions related to how a professional body regulates itself and the scope of practice of veterinaries. SAF consulted extensively with stakeholders on possible changes to the Act. While there was not a full consensus, there was support for updating the Act, including changing the scope of practice to include horse castration, horse dentistry and all forms of pregnancy checks. The consultations included meetings with Saskatchewan Stock Growers Association, Saskatchewan Cattle Feeders Association, Saskatchewan Veterinary Medical Association, Farm Animal Council of Saskatchewan and Saskatchewan Equine Ranchers Association. Letters requesting views on changes to The Veterinarians Act, 1987 were sent to Saskatchewan Veterinary Medical Association, Western College of Veterinary Medicine, Saskatchewan Horse Federation, Sask Pork, Saskatchewan Stock Growers Association, Dairy Farmers of Saskatchewan, Saskatchewan Equine Ranchers Association, Saskatchewan Elk Breeders Association, Saskatchewan White-Tail Deer and Mule Deer Producers Association, Saskatchewan Association of Veterinary Technologists, Saskatchewan Egg and Poultry Association, Saskatchewan Sheep Development Board, Saskatchewan Sheep Breeders Association, Saskatchewan Cattle Feeders Association, Saskatchewan PMU Association and Saskatchewan Quarter Horse Association.

The amendments were introduced into the fall 2005 session of the Saskatchewan Legislature. After introduction some of the stakeholders who had previously supported the amendments started to have reservations. The Saskatchewan Stock Growers Association changed their position with respect to the changes to scope of practice. As a result, the amendments were put on hold at the fall session. More recently, more consultations were held with stakeholders on the amendments at a meeting on Wednesday, March 8, 2006. There was no longer any consensus on changing scope of practice. There was agreement that the other amendments should go forward. As a result, the intention is to move the amending Act forward without any changes to the scope of practice. This will result in an updated Veterinary Act with updated provisions on how veterinarians regulate themselves, but with no changes to scope of practice.

(2) Letters to stakeholder groups were sent July and September 2005. A stakeholder meeting was held March 8, 2006.

Answer:

The term of a Forest Management Agreement (FMA) is twenty years. However, during this twenty-year period, if a company is considered to be in default of any of its obligations, they may be given a set time to remedy the default. If they do not remedy the default, then the FMA may be subject to forfeiture. If the company's facilities cease operation, there is a time specified after which they are considered in default and the FMA is subject to forfeiture. Because these agreements are negotiated the timeframe for closure differs in different FMAs.

Mr. Wall asked the Government the following Question No. 1086, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Higgins:

To the Minister of Learning: Can the Minister indicate: (1) How much money has been provided to the Holy Trinity Roman Catholic School Division for air quality upgrades over the past year? (2) What actions the school division has taken/will be taking with funding provided by the department to improve air quality? (3) How much of the funding is new (as of this calendar year)?

Answer:

(1) The department is funding $248,000 of a total of $350,000.

(2) The school division commissioned consultants to assess the problem, recommend solutions and monitor the air quality. In addition, the consultants developed the design to repair the sewer, plumbing and ventilation systems and replace, patch and clean up the finishes affected by the work. The school division also leased three relocatable classrooms for use by students and staff removed from the school.

(3) All of the funding provided by the department is from the 2006-2007 budget.

Mr. Wall asked the Government the following Question No. 1087, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Higgins:

To the Minister of Learning: Does the Minister consider any of the airborne fungi mentioned in a report prepared by Dr. Don Figley dated February 21, 2006 ("air sampling for airborne fungi found aspergilluis unguis, acremonium strictum, aspergilluis versicolor and penicillium griseofolvum") to be hazardous to the health of students and staff at St. Patrick's School in Swift Current?

Answer:

Please note that the latest study carried out by Dr. Figley was dated February 21, 2005 (source Dr. Figley). If Mr. Wall has a different report, the department would be happy to review and provide comment on that report.

No. The kinds and levels of mould in the school were consistent with and at a significantly lower level than levels found in the outside air. The main issue in this school was found to be a lack of integrity in the plumbing system that resulted in the infiltration of sewer gases into the school. The testing for moulds, asbestos, etc. was carried out to ensure that these concerns were not an issue. There was no evidence to suggest that there were any moulds growing in the school. The mere existence of moulds in air samples does not necessarily constitute a health hazard. There were complaints regarding the health of students and staff which is why the school division contacted and involved the local health authorities and occupational health and safety officials. Both are satisfied that the school is now safe for the students and staff.

Mr. Wall asked the Government the following Question No. 1088, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Higgins:

To the Minister of Learning: Can the Minister indicate what the $248,000 announced by the Department of Learning on April 20, 2006 for "air quality upgrades" to St. Patrick's School in Swift Current will be used for?

Answer:

This is identified above in question 1086.

Mr. Wall asked the Government the following Question No. 1089, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Higgins:

To the Minister of Learning: Can the Minister indicate how much money the department paid in 2006-2007 for repairs and renovation to Saskatchewan schools that have been found to have mould or other problems that can affect the health and safety of students and staff?

Answer:

The department, thus far in 2006-2007, has committed to spend approximately $1.75M for health and safety issues. This is a very high priority for the department.

Mr. Wall asked the Government the following Question No. 1090, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Higgins:

To the Minister of Learning: Can the Minister indicate how much money the department paid in 2005-2006 for repairs and renovation to Saskatchewan schools that have been found to have mould or other problems that can affect the health and safety of students and staff?

Answer:

In 2005-2006, the department spent approximately $1.4M on health and safety issues.

Mr. Wall asked the Government the following Question No. 1091, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Higgins:

To the Minister of Learning: Is the Minister aware whether any mould or any fungus which could potentially pose a health hazard to students and/or staff was located during the inspection of St. Patrick's School?

Answer:

In October 2004, baseline testing by Dr. Figley indicated that aspergillus/ penicillium spores with a small percentage (2% - 8%) of the spores indicated as toxigenic, pathogenic or atypical fungi species (agremonium strictum) were detected. Remedial action was taken, and air samples taken in February 2005 (Dr. Figley's February 21, 2005 report). See question 1087 for additional information.

Mr. Wall asked the Government the following Question No. 1092, which was answered by the Hon. Ms. Higgins:

To the Minister of Learning: Now that the repairs of St. Patrick's School in Swift Current have been completed, does the department have a commitment to pay for a total environmental assessment to determine the overall condition of the school, given the lengthy history of air quality complaints at St. Patrick's School and the fact that testing located at least six plumbing leaks in the school?

Answer:

Consultants and health officials have been monitoring the environments prior to, during and after renovations. The results were reviewed by the local medical authority and met the accepted standards. The department is satisfied that all steps have been taken to remedy the situation in St. Patrick's School. The $248,000 committed by the department is the total amount needed to address this issue. The ventilation and plumbing systems were checked thoroughly and repaired/replaced as necessary.

Mr. Brkich asked the Government the following Question No. 1096, which was answered by the Hon. Mr. Taylor:

To the Minister of Health: How many communities in rural Saskatchewan are without the services of a full-time resident physician, and which ones?

Answer:

The Regional Health Authorities (RHAs) are responsible for providing the day-to-day delivery of health programs and services, including the management of physician recruitment and retention. At the same time, Saskatchewan Health continues to work closely with RHAs to retain and recruit key health care providers, to ensure quality of health services and access to care. The overall supply of physicians has been steadily increasing over the past few years. The head count of all licensed physicians in Saskatchewan, including temporary licensed locums, was 1,728 in December 2005 compared to 1,622 at the end of March 2001, an increase of 6%.

Our records show that there are approximately 230 rural family physicians providing services to communities across rural Saskatchewan, up nearly 10% from 210 physicians in 2001. Many of these physicians provide visiting services to a range of communities in their geographic area.

Mr. Brkich asked the Government the following Question No. 1097, which was answered by the Hon. Mr. Taylor:

To the Minister of Health: What assistance does the provincial government provide for communities who have lost the services of their resident physician?

Answer:

Saskatchewan Health, in partnership with the Saskatchewan Medical Association (SMA), funds an array of programs and initiatives directly and indirectly targeted at recruiting and retaining physicians. These include specific programs targeted at rural physicians, including the Locum Relief Program, Rural and Regional Practice Establishment Grants, Rural Practice Enhancement Training, and a Rural Extended Leave Program. These programs and many other initiatives for physicians amount to approximately $21M in 2005-2006.

The Regional Health Authorities (RHAs) manage the provision of health services for their communities. We recognise that there are continuing challenges faced by rural and remote communities to recruit and retain physicians and we are working with the SMA, the College of Physician and Surgeons, and the RHAs to address these challenges. For example, Saskatchewan has recently released a Health WorkForce Plan that provides a framework within which the Province, in partnership with stakeholders, will ensure that the needs for all health providers will be met now and into the future.

Mr. Brkich asked the Government the following Question No. 1098, which was answered by the Hon. Mr. Taylor:

To the Minister of Health: Does the provincial government offer temporary physician services to communities that have lost their full-time resident physician until a permanent physician can be obtained?

Answer:

Regional Health Authorities (RHAs) are responsible for the provision of health services for their communities. RHAs arrange for visiting services while the recruitment occurs. As well, there are a number of programs and initiatives that assist in physician recruitment and retention, including Rural and Regional Practice Establishment Grants and a Rural Extended Leave Program.

Mr. Brkich asked the Government the following Question No. 1099, which was answered by the Hon. Mr. Taylor:

To the Minister of Health: Does the provincial government offer a physician recruitment service for communities that have lost the services of a full-time physician?

Answer:

The Regional Health Authorities are responsible for recruiting physicians in communities within their jurisdiction. However, in addition to the physician recruitment and retention initiatives, the provincial government will be establishing a Provincial Recruitment Agency that will assist regions in recruiting, particularly those regions with difficulties recruiting and retaining physicians in rural and remote areas.
